

ONE HUNDRED BARCLAY TRIBECA

Spacious Modern Lofts in Tribeca

Here at last is loft living that combines the expansive proportions of the early 20th century with all the conveniences of the 21st.

Originally conceived as the headquarters for the New York Telephone Company in 1927 the building has been heralded as "one of the most significant structures in skyscraper design," by the New York City Landmarks Preservation Commission. Today, it is the height of loft living and offers more amenities than any other Tribeca address.

LOCATION

Surrounded by the best of Tribeca, One Hundred Barclay is moments away from Hudson River Park, award winning restaurants, a thriving gallery scene, and luxury shopping.

At Home in the City's Most Desirable Locale

Tribeca: It's the neighborhood that's kid-friendly and full of culture. There are ballfields and boutiques, micromuseums and mid-century modern design empires. Iconic restaurants and shops line cobblestone streets. There's a star-studded major film festival and a famous family street fair. It's the neighborhood that has everything you need, whenever you want it.

Parks

River views, waterfront walks, and perfect piers, all within striking distance of One Hundred Barclay's front door. Nearby is Hudson River Park, home to 550 acres of piers, parks and promenades, and a greenway that stretches south to the Battery and north through Chelsea and The High Line to Riverside Park.

Dining

From James Beard winners to ice cream carts, Tribeca has it all. Icons include Little Park and Batard, the Odeon and Locanda Verde, but there's also a boat bar and Bubby's midnight brunch. With nearly 500 restaurants, cafés, and coffee houses, there's something for every taste, at every hour.

Galleries & Shopping

Designer boutiques, retail havens, and art galleries galore fill Tribeca. Nearby, the luxury lifestyle destination, Brookfield Place, includes 40 retailers including Burberry, Babesta, Hermès, and Paul Smith. An ice rink appears here in winter, boats set sail come spring, and year round there are art installations, cooking classes at the Institute of Culinary Education, and serious workouts at Equinox.

Across the street is Westfield World Trade Center, home to the second NYC location of Eataly and Épicerie Boulud, as well as 350,000 square feet of flagship retail including Apple, Michael Kors, Stuart Weitzman, John Varvatos, Lady M Confections, and L.K.Bennet.

One Hundred Barclay has the most extensive amenity program in Tribeca. Multiple indoor and outdoor venues for relaxing, entertaining, and exercising are placed on different levels throughout the building, affording a rich and varied lifestyle.

The Grand Lobby & Arrival

Entrance on Barclay Street featuring a custom steel and glass canopy with built-in lighting.

Arrival Lobby, designed by Jeffrey Beers International, featuring paneled millwork walls, a 24/7 manned custom brushed brass concierge desk, atelier-style furnishings, and a gold leaf ceiling above.

Spectacular landmarked Art Deco Grand Lobby with Ralph Walker-designed vaulted ceiling and hand-painted ceiling murals depicting the historical advancement of human communication.

Jeffrey Beers International has designed the Grand Lobby to include a curated collection of seating, lounge, and entertaining areas exclusively for residents and their guests.

Landmarked Art Deco Elevator Lobby, originally designed by Ralph Walker, featuring design elements including ornate cast bronze elevator surrounds, carved and patterned marble, and limestone walls.
